I radiate My love without distinction and without measure and goal for those who have opened their hearts wide in this yearning for Me, in this yearning to come close to the Heavenly Father already here on this earth and not to wait until they leave this body to then start the path to Me in the great beyond, but to greet Me now and here in this attitude of humility of love, in this yearning, which now opens up and becomes love in My presence, because in My presence everything becomes love, and eternity reveals itself in everything I touch and wherever I express Myself in time.

And this ray of eternity, which I send out from my heart into your hearts, and which now spreads beyond that as the light of my love, is I myself.

My children, in every country there are as many deceased as there are in the body, and these too need redemption. There are many of them whom I have now invited by sending out My angels and opening doors, by revealing My Word through the angels to those who have been in darkness for a long time but have already developed within themselves the need to be freed from the burden they still carry within themselves, so that the ties to the past may be broken.

Thus, a great act of redemption is accomplished at every ceremony I call for, for that is My need after all: to redeem, to liberate, to give life to those who are dead. Yes, to call the dead out of their graves, that is what I have come for, that is what I am here for, that I have set as My goal as God and I will realise it: The salvation of this creation, regardless of how long it takes; that does not matter to Me as God, but for My creatures and for My children who are in time, it does matter; and so it is good if one hears my call early and promptly and follows my word, so that I can then take my child out of the stream of time and put it into the ray of eternity out of me – that is my need and my great joy.

And for this reason I have called you here to reveal myself not as God, the Almighty, but as heavenly father, full of love, care and longing. Yes, I long to show you that I am your Father, just as an earthly father and mother long for their children when they have gone away and await their return with beating hearts and great expectation. Believe it, My children, that is how I feel. You are, after all, a part of Me, a living part of My Being, which I have set free.

And so this bond always exists between Me and you. From My side it is visible, but from your side it is the case that you have to fight for this bond, that you first have to come to the realisation through faith in My Word and in My love that you are united with Me through the bond of life and love. And so it happens that I communicate with My children in this way, to show you that you are children of God in the true sense.

So that you may understand what it means to be a child of God, what it means for this time and what it means beyond that for life in eternity. Now, here on this earth it means that I vouch for you with My life, that I prepare every road for you on which you walk. No matter what choice you make, I am present everywhere and guide you, take you by the hand, give you the impulses and guidelines on how to walk on this road.

On this road I lead you to the people you are to meet, so that you, as instruments of My love, may give them My Word, may give them love. And all these gifts that I give through you plant seeds in people. Even if they do not notice it, even if they do not respond to the word you speak to them, even if they spurn the love you give them, something is still happening in secret.

In this secrecy, seeds of love are buried deep in the soil of the soul, and these seeds will one day come up and give these people divine impulses, because they are seeds of awakening. And one day, when they awaken – perhaps in an emergency or in a moment of love, when this person is placed in a situation where he meets another person whom he suddenly loves very much – then these seeds in the soil of the soul will be watered by this encounter or by the adversity.

Then the seed opens and the invisible becomes visible. What I have done through you then bears fruits of awakening and this person can then take the path of salvation. This is the task of My children. What does it mean to be a child of God on this earth at this time? First and foremost, as you already know, it is about attaining the free childship to God. It is about deciding for or against Me in the freedom of your will and in the freedom of your love.

And if you have decided in My favour and would like to be a true child of God, then place your lives in My love and pray: 'Dear Father, I ask You to fill me as Your child completely with Your love. Yes, dear Father, I ask You to lead me to spiritual rebirth here on earth, as far as possible. And yet I have said it and emphasise it again and again: I fulfil every wish of My child. It is My desire to fulfil the wishes of My children and, of course, it is the spiritual wishes that come first that I want to fulfil.

It is My desire, after all, that My child should attain salvation, the rebirth of the spirit. For you know, of course, that only perfection can enter heaven. Any person who has not attained spiritual rebirth on this earth cannot enter My heavens. The soul must be perfect and pure. And that is why most of My children also come to paradise first, where they still have to discard all their remaining darkness.

Only in the kingdom of the beyond does the spiritual birth take place. And only then can My child enter the heavens. But the further a person on this earth advances in the spirit, the more he moves into the spiritual rebirth through love for Me, the faster the path in the kingdom of the beyond is accomplished. Therefore strive for it and ask Me for it, because all things are possible for Me. And I do see the willingness in your hearts to consecrate everything to Me, to give your lives to Me completely, so that I can be your King and your heavenly Father in the sense of true childship. Is it not your most blissful desire to live in the security of My love?

So it is in your own hands to declare your readiness for My love in loyalty and humble devotion, so that I then accomplish the rest. That My spirit in you may open, so that the kingdom of love may open in you, so that My heavens in you may already on earth be able to unfold. That is what I expect of you, My children. And that is not too much to expect. It is too much to expect of those who are still far removed from the love for me.

But for My children who have declared their willingness to serve Me and give Me their hearts, all preparations have been made. It is only a matter of entering into My presence, for I am already with you, My little children. So love Me, give Me all your love and share it, and thereby Me, not with the world, for only in this way can you enter into My presence.

Therefore, your request should be: 'My Father, I ask You so that I can love You even more. Please give me even more insight into Your heart and open my heart even more to You, so that the ray between our hearts will become more and more intense and that ultimately our hearts will become one heart.' So be it, My children. This is the fulfilment and bliss of both of us, this becoming one again already now in time.

Yes, My children, you are already attending the upper classes of the school of the spirit. I do not mean wisdom, I am speaking of love. For love is the measure of the presence of God and not wisdom. One can know much but not love. But if one loves much, if one loves Me, one also has the necessary light and realisation of what is needed and what is important on the path with Me. And so I now lift up your hearts to My spirit so that they may open up a little more. I place your yearning into love.

Yearning is the preliminary stage of love and is the emanation of love and is contained within it, otherwise yearning could not be fulfilled in love. And when I permeate you with My spirit of love, you may not even feel it so much, now, in this moment... or maybe you do? But this fulfilment penetrates into the dark corridors of your soul that you do not yet know, and from this comes an insight, a self-knowledge of certain parts of your soul that were hidden from you until now and that you can then work through with Me.

Then it may well be that trials await you after such encounters with Me, for then it is necessary that these dark areas are worked through, which are now illuminated and opened up to My radiation. I tell you this so that when a trial comes upon you, you will reflect and know that it is a necessity. And then you know: Now I can redeem this part of my soul together with Jesus. My Father redeems it together with me and I come a little closer to Him and in my soul it becomes a little brighter again and so it always goes forward.

But such influences do not only happen during the ceremonies, but necessarily in general at irregular intervals, depending on which part of the soul is to be redeemed - but then not in the special grace of My presence. And so it goes step by step forward on the way, on this Jacob's ladder, always according to your willingness and devotion.

When you reflect on My love, on My presence, I Am always there. Not in the idea that I could be there, but I Am then divinely present. And when you enter into silence, when you become still, when your hearts come to rest, then you will feel this My presence quite intensely. But it should become a constant reality for you that your heavenly Father dwells with you. And so I bless the spaces around all My children who love Me. And I place My angels around their houses and apartments so that they protect My children in their earthly homes.

So there is also a spiritual shelter. When you are in it, in My presence, it can storm outside in the world as it wants. Then earthly conditions can change, be it war or disease. My child knows: No matter what happens in the world, when I am in this spiritual shelter, I am safe with my Heavenly Father. Isn't it a wonderful gift that you can go to this room at any time?

I am always there, waiting for you, saying: 'Come to me with all your worries, with your fears, with your inability to be reconciled. Give me your past, everything, give me everything. I will take it upon myself. I will free you from your burden or help you carry it, depending on how much you give me. If you give Me everything, I will carry everything for you. And if you give Me only a part, then I will carry a part for you. That is up to you.

And where is this shelter that I offer you, that I have built for you? You have known for a long time that it is within you, it is your heart, for I live in your hearts, spiritually alive in the personality of My love as Jesus Christ. Here you can meet Me. Here I await you. Here we embrace. Yes, My children, imagine that I am standing before you, that we take each other's hands and look into each other's eyes.

And then we draw close to one another and I, your heavenly Father, put My arms around you and you put your arms around Me. And then there is an intimate embrace between father and child. Do it, and you will feel a warmth in your chest. You will feel a freedom in your soul when you enter into My presence, even in the imagination of this embrace, which, according to your love for Me, has reality in the spiritual world.
