

09.10.2024

You are all fighting with yourselves and with the world, wrestling for My love within you and for My love from within to your neighbours. I have led you into this process by calling you by name so that you may walk this path with and towards Me, this path of truth and of life, which I Myself Am in Word and in deed.

I have fanned your longing and continue to fan it again and again, so that your hearts do not turn away from Me, but that the desire for the birth of My spirit unfolds more and more strongly in you, this lofty goal of being human on this planet called Earth, which I have chosen to be the capstone of this creation, which I have chosen to be the training planet for My children, which I have exalted through My suffering and death on the cross and through My resurrection to be the redemption planet for all of creation.

You have come here through eons to stand exactly where you are now, namely in My Word, which is I Myself. Yes, you stand with Me and in Me at the threshold of eternity, where I take you by the hand and say to you: So take My hand and take My heart, so that I may take you out of the raging torrent of time and lift you up into My Spirit of truth and love.

But, My children, are you ready for this? Have you created the conditions and submitted your lives to Me in humility? Have you followed your hearts? In them I call out to you daily: 'Come to Me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest! Come to Me, your heavenly Father, who longs for your love so that I can wash your souls clean with the purity of My blood and with the love that only I can give you and never the world.

Yes, it is My desire to lead you into the rebirth of the Spirit; I desire nothing more than that. But for this you need to completely abstain from the world and completely surrender to My love, trusting that I guide and lead your life. Because this birth, this lasting rapture into My spirit, is the highest thing a person can achieve. This rarely happens in this world; usually the perfection takes place in the beyond.

But know that the progress in love for Me and for your fellow human beings already on this earth determines the degree of heavenly bliss. Yes, everything depends on the love for Me. You should not strive for perfection as a reward for good deeds, but for the sake of love. Love alone should be your motive, and the spirit of love can only be found in the present and not in the imagination and expectation of the future.