My children in need and pain, for very special reasons you have chosen this difficult earthly path. Some of you have descended from the bright spheres into this valley of death in order to take a special path of redemption by making sacrifices, on which your souls experience the state of hell, which prepares you for a task related to the nature of mercy and at the same time prepares your souls in such a way that you can receive My Spirit, Me, in extraordinary abundance.

I have taken others of you out of a temporal or eternal place of purification due to requests and intercessions and at your own request, so that you can accomplish the purification of your souls here on this earth in a relatively short period of time, which would otherwise have taken much longer.

So there are two main motivations, both of which penetrate deeply into the spirit of mercy – and both lead to the same goal. For the result is the same, your soul states will ultimately be the same, the measure of love in you for Me and thus your state of bliss will not differ from one another.

Now you are thinking: ‘What kind of soul am I? Where do I come from?’ My child, that does not matter at all, because remember: originally you are all taken from Me as brothers and sisters in equal parts, there was an understanding and a unity of love from My heart, from which I thought of you and loved you.

But you have gone different ways through the times and eternities, some of you have strayed far from the warmth and light of My heart and fallen deeply into the hands of darkness, others were able to hold on to Me and the ray of love light from My heart was their guiding star and support.

So know: The love of My heart does not differ depending on whether an angel or star soul walks this earthly path of sacrifice or whether a fallen soul has gone to this place of purification called earth, in order to come back into My arms and into My heart as soon as possible. For I Am the most loving heavenly Father of you all and only see what is happening now, and that I can make you all infinitely happy.

This also applies to those of My children who are going through this time with a physical disability. Here, too, prenatal conditions have predetermined special measures and paths of redemption for the soul, which particularly urge the soul to develop such humility that enables the soul to fill its entire space with My spirit. This applies not only to those affected, but also to their families and those who care for them.

Now know: your adversity is not only limited in time with regard to your earthly passing, but in view of My return there will already be healings and final redemption in the body of some of you and your burden will be taken from you before the time. Others I will recall to release them from earthly bonds that kept you in spiritual distress, in doubt and despair. Both are good and lead to the same goal.

But, My children, make a space available to Me in which I can let divine forgiveness flow, which you must then take and apply to the evildoers who have hurt you in soul and body. This is the prerequisite and necessity for our joint plan to be fulfilled; so that you, My daughter, and you, My son, may achieve your goal in life, so that the circle of your temporal becoming and passing away may now close and you may enter again into the eternal Being, which I Myself Am, wherein there is no death and no adversity.

Therefore, rejoice that I communicate this to you and give you this assurance of salvation from all adversity and eternal bliss at My side, in My heart.
